Are you passionate about arts and culture? Do you want to gain valuable board experience with a growing cultural organization? Rezonance Baroque Ensemble is seeking individuals to join our Board of Directors. As a volunteer board member, you will help guide our organization's mission and contribute to the success of our projects.

Description

Who We Are:

Established in 2012, Rezonance is a chamber music group based in Toronto, dedicated to the performance of music from the Renaissance to early Classical periods on historical instruments. The core group of musicians consists of two violins, cello, harpsichord, and lute.

Rezonance Baroque Ensemble is one of the most exciting groups on Toronto's classical music scene. Unafraid of improvisation and experimenting with new concert formats, and already known for giving captivating performances that resonate with today's audiences, Rezonance is one of the foremost chamber music interpreters in Toronto. Inspired by history and informed by the present, Rezonance leads audiences through the discovery of under-appreciated and unusual works, and new ways of hearing the classics, in a manner that is intimate, accessible, and fun, while maintaining the highest possible artistry.
